

English 227: Presentations – Thursday (Jan. 28), Friday (Jan. 29), and Monday (Feb. 1)

With your group, you will choose a topic or topics within the larger categories of Shakespeare, John Donne, etc. Your presentation may be creative (a re-enactment of a scene from a play or of a historical event) or informative.

The purpose of this assignment is to explore in-depth a topic of interest, and to share your research and/or knowledge with the class.

What's required?

- A group presentation of approximately 20 minutes; it must include at least one visual and audience participation.
- Research that will enhance your understanding of your topic. A minimum of 2 sources per person is required for your group. Sources may include web sites, articles, and audio/visual material; the only requirement is that they be credible.

What do we need to submit?

- An Annotated Bibliography in MLA format of your sources.
