Course Description:

This class includes navigation, weather, communications, regulations, international flight planning, two engine extended range operations and other subjects required for international dispatch.

Materials for Course:

1. Global Navigation for Pilots, 2nd Editions, ASA Publishers
2. International Flight Planning & Information Manual (IFIM) handouts (provided).

Learning Objective:

The student will obtain the necessary aeronautical knowledge in international flight planning to perform complex flight planning and predict aircraft performance. The student will become familiar with FAA regulations concerning twin-engine operations over extended over water flights. This class is taught using the lecture and discussion method. Stage tests are given following each stage and a final comprehensive examination is given.

Responsibility:

1. Student demonstrates a knowledge of and a willingness to accept stated/agreed upon expectations, policies, behavior, and procedures.
2. Student demonstrates accountability (punctual and ready to learn), integrity (does own work and pulls own weight in collaborative tasks), initiative (seeks help when needed), and tolerance (develops awareness of own biases).
3. Student actively and appropriately interacts with others respecting everyone's opinion.

Demonstrated by preparedness for lectures and discussions, handing assignments in on time, and group accountability.

Quantitative/Symbolic Reasoning:

1. Student evaluates and interprets information / data.
2. Student recognizes which processes or methods are appropriate for solving a given problem, and correctly implements those processes.
3. Student demonstrates the ability to estimate a solution to a presented problem
4. Student translates data into various formats such as graphs, tables, formulas, and sentences.

Demonstrated through your answers in class, on projects, homework, and tests.

Critical Thinking:

1. Student provides reasons for the conclusions they reach and assess the relevance and adequacy of those reasons.
2. Student connects past learning with current topics.

Demonstrated through your explanations in class, on projects, assignments, and tests.

Written & Oral Communications:

1. Student demonstrates involvement with the material by expressing a clear sense of purpose, unity, and focus in their writing or speaking.
2. Student demonstrates clear organization of their thoughts in written and oral communications.
3. Student demonstrates well-organized and logical writing with correct grammar and spelling.

Demonstrated in projects, test answers, and class and group participation.
