

Intensive Writing Goals

Name: _____

It's important for both you and the teacher to understand why you need writing.

Of course you need it to write notes for your children and to explain problems to your apartment manager. But what are your goals for yourself and how is writing connected to those goals?

Take a few minutes and discuss with a group the things that you really need to write well.

- Think about your job.
- Consider if you want to study at the college level or if you need writing to take a technical class.

Then answer these questions.

I want to finish Level 6 and then get a job. Yes ___ No ___

I want to stop at level 5 and get a job. Yes ___ No ___

I plan to go to college for 4 years. Yes ___ No ___

If you said, yes, what do you want to study? _____

After ESL, I want to get my GED. Yes ___ No ___

After ESL, I want to enter the ABE program to study more English. Yes ___ No ___

I completed high school in my country. Yes ___ No ___

If you said, no, what level did you complete? _____

Is there anything else you would like to say about the information above or about your future goals?
