

ESOL Level 5 Goal Setting

Activities

- Have students group themselves by their main purpose: Employment/Education/Life. Then instruct each group to think of specific situations where they have needed more English than they have. Check in with each group and record the results.
- Have students group themselves according to the skill they need to practice the most. Encourage them to sit at tables composed of students with a mix of strong skills.