

ANOTHER vs. OTHER

ANOTHER = one additional. It is singular.

It can be

- an adjective -- I want another dog.
- an adjective used with “one”-- I have a dog, but I want another one.
- A pronoun that replaces a singular noun -- I have a dog, but I want to get another.

OTHER = additional. It is mostly used with plural nouns.

It is

- an adjective, often used with “some.” I want some other pets.

OTHERS = additional

It is

- a plural pronoun—Some dogs are well- behaved and others are not.