

Teacher Directions: Cut up the cards below. Hand them out to groups of students and let them choose what is true for them. Students can copy two on their “My Goals” sheet. Have volunteers share with the class or in a group or with a partner when they are finished.

So I can help my children with their homework.	So I can read and understand the newspaper.
So I can understand my mail.	So I can make food.
So I can get a driver’s license.	So I can understand information on the internet.

So I can write letters to my friends.	So I can help my children write better.
So I can enroll in a work training program.	So I can understand other people who speak English.

So I can understand the radio.	So I can help my children improve their English.
So I can understand people at the store.	So I can make more friends who speak only English.
So I can understand my doctor or my dentist.	So I can learn better in school.

So I can tell someone else what I need.	So I can talk to my doctor or my dentist.
So I can get a good job.	So I can talk to the doctor about my children when they get sick.