

About the author

Michael Farnum, originally from Honolulu Hawaii and recently retired from the US Army is working toward a BS in Natural Resources/GIS at Green River Community College. Michael's career goals are to work in research and analysis with GIS in forestry or wildlife management. Michael is a team leader with the Veterans Conservation Corps, the Green River Society of American Foresters Student - Chapter Treasurer, and the GIS Alliance Treasurer. His military career fostered a passion for the outdoors. The VCC and GRCC are providing the tools needed to start a second career which will allow him work in the best office ever made, our forests. Michael can be reached at msfarnum7@hotmail.com